This addition to the reception/ executive seating ranges builds on the success of the original Barolo, with the same smooth lines and finely detailed upholstery. The chrome plated legs add a touch of lightness and elegance to the overall design.

Barolo is available as a single armchair and a two seater settee. The finely detailed slimline upholstery will help to create a feeling of 'lightness' to any reception area.

The Barolo range now includes a solid beech wood leg version.
